

Founder's Associate Open Position

Are you looking for a very special challenge?

Would you like to lay the foundation for a fast-growing software start-up with experienced founders and fundamentally change the professional audio market with real innovation? Are you organized, good at communicating and can you really step on the gas? Then we look forward to receiving your application.

About Us

Network technology is becoming more and more relevant for audio transmission in professional applications such as concerts. Leading manufacturers are already relying on new open standards. We want to make this accessible to even more manufacturers by means of software that manufacturers integrate into their devices.

Your mission at JOYNED

In our early phase, most of the threads come together again with the founding team. In order to fulfill the multitude of tasks, we need your help. As our right hand, you give us more space and focus for our daily tasks and at the same time shape central aspects of JOYNED, such as culture, processes, strategy, team events, etc.

Your tasks

Support of the founding team in their tasks.

Taking on your own tasks and projects in the areas of team culture, recruiting, communication, sales, fundraising, product, etc.

Qualifications

You are a hungry, goal-oriented and action-oriented personality who wants to advance initiatives and thoughts.

You can complete tasks in a structured and conscientious manner.

You are an organizational talent.

You have very good knowledge of English.

What makes JOYNED so special?

Product Innovation - Our focus is on true technical innovation that is already being used in our customers' products.

Experienced founding team - The founders have a lot of experience in the professional audio industry and bring many contacts with them.

Perfect timing to join our journey if you want to take responsibility & ownership to help shape our path.

What we offer

Openness to your ideas – you should bring in your own ideas.

Flexible working - work when and where you want.

Taking responsibility for projects.

Work directly with the founders.

Market-compliant remuneration.

New laptop as equipment.

Attractive opportunities for advancement.

Nice work environment in the middle of the alps. We love it!

We offer you a full-time gross monthly salary of at least €2,635. If you have suitable practical experience, we will be happy to pay you more. We are looking forward to your application!
